

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Additionally, Sinclair's actions demonstrate a violation of FCC rulings regulating fair elections in our country. I am asking the FCC to intervene on the public's behalf and stop the intended forced showing of the propoganda "documentary" Sinclair hopes to run. I also think a renewal of their liscense should hang in the balance. Thank You. Kathy Cramer
